MARTIAL LAW FOR MEXICO TO BE ORDERED TOMORROW.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS CALLED IN THE REPUBLIC.

UNITED STATES FLAG NOW FLOATS OVER 15,000 REGULAR SOLDIERS NOW ON THE MEXICAN BORDER.

MEXICO CITY, March 11.—It is reported today that the Mexican congress will be called in extraordinary session tomorrow and that martial law will be proclaimed throughout the republic. Government officials are secretive and it is impossible to secure official confirmation of the report.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 11.—By night the United States flag will float over 15,000 regulars on the government reservation here. Major-General William Carter is now in command.

The excitement here is intense and thousands of people on the streets cheered the blue line of soldiers marching into camp on the great reservation. The Eleventh cavalry from Fort Oglethorpe arrived here this morning.

The troops today received a hint of what is expected along the border when it became known that provisions for 20,000 men for four months have been ordered. This order is taken to mean that the present mobilization has the invasion of Mexico as the ultimate object.

The troops "raised the roof" when this news was passed along the line and great enthusiasm prevailed in the camps for a time.

Secret Japanese Treaty—

NEW ORLEANS, March 11.—A dispatch from Mexico City says that a secret treaty, which provides for an offensive and defensive alliance, exists between Mexico and Japan.

For this statement, which will undoubtedly be denied, there is the authority of a prominent financier who is in the powers behind the throne in Mexico. According to this authority this secret treaty was negotiated about a year ago. It provides among other things that in case Mexico is attacked by a stronger power Japan will come to her assistance with both her army and navy.

Women and Children Die—

COLUMBUS, N. M., March 11.—Many women and children have been killed in the fighting at Casa Grandes. The insurrectos are still holding the town.

More Troops on Border—

EL PASO, Tex., March 11.—Six more troops of cavalry will be added to the four troops of cavalry and five troops of infantry companies patrolling the border today. A total of 1,800 more troops will be added during the day. The United States soldiers have orders to break up the recruiting stations of the insurrectos on American soil and keep back the Rebels and Federal deserters.

President Diaz Well—

NEW YORK, March 11—An evening newspaper today received the following dispatch from Mexico City which says: "The state of my health remains good and shows no change." The dispatch was signed P. Diaz.

Taft and Knox Break—

WASHINGTON, March 11—It is reported today that President Taft and Secretary of State Knox are divided over the question of mobilizing troops and ships to intimidate the Mexican insurrectos. Knox and Assistant Secretary Wilson are said to be much peeved over the action of the president. It is said the state department has been ignored in the matter and that Knox and Wilson have gone to Florida for a vacation and to avoid any responsibility, shifting the whole situation onto the shoulders of the president, who assumes direct command.

To Send More Troops—

WASHINGTON, March 11—There are persistent rumors again today that President Diaz is barely alive and is compelled to sign papers without reading them. American Ambassador Creel today emphatically denied that a naval station in Mexico has been granted to Japan.

Plans for the mobilization of 15,000 more troops on the Mexican border were completed today. The general staff has been working hard all day preparing to order the second army division to Texas and is already considering the advisability of adding the full force of national guardsmen to the troops on the border. Major General Wood is in full charge.

Three Additional Ships—

FORTRESS MONROE, Va., March 11—The transports Sumner, Kilpatrick and McClellan, with 24 companies of artillery and 3,000 infantry sailed today for Galveston.

Taft Keeps Posted—

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 11—President Taft arrived here this morning for a vacation. Today he has been playing golf, but has been kept constantly advised and in close touch with developments on the Mexican border.

DAYTONA CAMP W. O. W. HOLDS SPECIAL MEETING.

CONFERRED MEMBERSHIP UPON THREE PROMISING CANDIDATES FRIDAY NIGHT—SEVERAL READY FOR INITIATION.

WON'T HAVE HAIR CLIPPED; STUDENTS CLOSE UNIVERSITY.

STATE SCHOOL IN LOUISIANA IS CLOSED BECAUSE 300 STUDENTS REFUSE TO OBEY AN ORDER.

BATON ROUGE, La., March 11.—Rather than have their hair clipped as a punishment for having shaved the heads of several freshmen, 300 students at the state university went on a strike today and the institution has been closed.

AUTOMOBILE IN COLLISION LATE FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

CLASH OCCURRED AT CORNER OF BEACH STREET AND SECOND AVENUE— FORTUNATELY LITTLE DAMAGE RESULTED.

Two automobiles came together with a crash at the corner of Beach street and Second avenue, yesterday afternoon shortly before 4 o'clock, but fortunately no injury resulted to the occupants of either of the cars and only one of the cars was damaged, receiving a bent axle.

One of the cars was coming south on Beach street and the other turned from Second avenue into Beach street, going north. Neither car seems to have been traveling at a high rate of speed, but Second avenue is a narrow street and the car coming from it had been driven to the middle of the street to avoid a wagon standing at the curb and evidently turned the corner too closely on the left, giving the automobile coming south on Beach street no opportunity to escape a collision, and its front wheel on the left struck the hub of the rear wheel of the other car. The car struck was not damaged but the other received a bent axle.

The city ordinance in regard to the rules of the road should be more strictly adhered to by the drivers, particularly as regards the turning of corners, which is especially dangerous in the case of narrow streets like Second avenue.

REV. A. S. BADGER LEAVES ST. AUGUSTINE CHURCH.

ST. AUGUSTINE, March 11.—Rev. Dr. Alfred S. Badger has tendered his resignation to the Memorial Presbyterian church and will close up his work as pastor here the first of August. Rev. Mr. Badger has been contemplating this step for some time but did not hand in his resignation until the church closed a meeting held this week. Rev. Mr. Badger will return to his former home in Wisconsin, Wis.

The steamers Republic and F. E. A. both had large passenger lists this morning, the Republic especially having a big crowd for St. Augustine. The number of passengers on the F. E. A. seemed more than usually large to be south bound at this time in the season.

NO ORDERS ARE ISSUED TO OFFICERS.

INVITED TO GO TO TEXAS; SEVERAL GO FROM FLORIDA.

ONE SPECIAL CAR CARRYING REGULAR COAST ARTILLERY PASSES THROUGH DAYTONA FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

So far as known at this time no orders will be issued for officers or men of the Florida national guard to go to Texas to participate in the regular army mobilization and maneuvers, but invitations were extended to the officers of the state militia and a selection of the ones to participate was made from among those who volunteered.

The first detail of these officers will leave for Texas tonight and others may be detailed to join them later.

A special car carrying the coast artillery of the regular army from Key West to Texas passed through Daytona over the F. E. C. railroad Friday afternoon. The command consisted of one car and the only orders known by the men were that they are bound for the Mexican border.

Brigadier General J. S. Maxwell of Jacksonville is in charge of the detail of the Florida officers of the national guard.

Asked by the Daily News as to the special significance of the invitation to the Florida officers to go to Texas, Adjutant General Foster at the arsenal in St. Augustine wired as follows:

"No significance should be attached to the matter other than, as frankly stated from the war department, that it is a part of the general scheme for the instruction and training of the mobile troops of the army, which, of course, includes the organized militia. This general scheme, inaugurated during the administration of Mr. Root as secretary of war, is being proceeded with along practical and progressive lines. It may be said to have commenced with the abolishment of one and two company posts and the concentration of the mobile troops at posts where whole regiments or even a brigade could be accommodated.

"This has been followed by minor maneuvers, and, later by the establishment each alternate year of large camps of instruction and the conduct of more extensive maneuvers in which the organized militia has been invited to participate, the militia [illegible] being [illegible] as its [illegible] has progressed and as it has become better equipped and prepared for service in the field. The ultimate purpose of these maneuvers has been, of course, to place the army in a condition of better preparedness to respond quickly, efficiently and effectively in any emergency, to give practice in the methods of mobilization and maneuvers, and to give opportunity for officers commanding the larger units to work in a practical way important tactical problems. By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realizes that it is a world beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and baskets bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with filmy draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its crimson berry; see the climbing vines [illegible] in the trees; see the cryptomeria ferns which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and standing, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the [illegible], casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round; you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where [illegible] spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficiency and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctoo, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest and the finest, are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you see the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for autos, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

PICTURESQUE PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, and is connected with the peninsula opposite by a bridge.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes. A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the greatest attractions being the excellent fishing.

A short distance west of Port Orange are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a place that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. At one time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast indigo and sugar cane plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those early days but has been in disuse for forty or fifty years.

A very interesting drive from Daytona is by ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through the principal street of Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland.

DeLAND, THE ATHENS OF FLORIDA

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 22 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At DeLand is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational DeLand is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 30 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $130,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $40,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. DeLand proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that DeLand is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to DeLand is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From DeLand automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from DeLand to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from DeLand to Lake Helen, a like distance.

Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to DeLand. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH SERVICES

Second Sunday in Lent.

St. Marys', Daytona—Service and sermon 11 a. m.; Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Music by the choir.

Grace church, Port Orange—Service and sermon 3 p. m.

Grace church, New Smyrna—Service and sermon 7:30 p. m.

All seats free. Strangers welcome.

TOMORROW AT BAPTIST CHURCH

"America—A Field and a Force," will be the subject of the morning sermon at the First Baptist church tomorrow. Miss O'Connor, of the Morgan house, will sing.

"Why Was the Talent Buried?" will be the pastor's subject in the evening. A warm welcome awaits you. Strangers are especially invited.

PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE, March 1 0.—D. W. Winn has sold the D'Wolfe house to the present tennant, Mrs. Tribble.

R. L. Johnson was in town Thursday. He is engaged as engineer on a large yacht belonging to a New York man. They intend making a trip around to Texas in her this spring.

Miss Hester Morrison visited St. Augustine Friday, returning Sunday.

The entertainment Friday evening the 3rd, given by Helen Leslie-Bates and T. W. Lane was a great treat to us quiet village people.

Our visitors from Clinton county, Ind., gave Mrs. T. Smith and her sister, Mrs. H. Morrison, also from the same county, a surprise party Wednesday of last week, which was a very pleasant social event, the company numbering about sixty.

Mrs. S. Fred Cummings has sold the Port Orange house to Dr. J. M. Masters from Newport, Tenn., who will take possession April 1.

THE NEW SIGN ON THE PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING.

In justice to the real donors of the handsome gold lettered sign which was placed over the entrance of the public library building yesterday afternoon, it is only fair to state the sign was a gift to the library from W. H. Wright and Frank D. Spring, Mr. Wright and Frank D. Spring, chairman of the board of public works.

*Winton touring car for sale cheap. J. W. Fulgham. 83-3t

Queer Skirts in Yap.

In the "Island of Stone Money," Dr. W. H. Furniss tells of the female fashions of the natives of Yap, the most westerly of the Caroline islands, and expresses wonder that the women are so rarely burned to death.

"In the first place, their skirts are composed of four or five layers of dried leaves and strips of bast and are so voluminous and distended that they stand out all around the body, outrivaling the old fashioned hoopskirts. Even when sitting down the women are surrounded by a mound of veritable tinder. In the second place, they are forever striking matches to light their cigarettes; nay, worse even, they carry about with them, for the sake of economy, the glowing husk of a cocoanut, and neither to matches nor husk do they give the slightest heed, striking the one recklessly over their own skirts or absentmindedly resting the other against the skirts of their neighbor. Yet in spite of this utter recklessness never did I see a skirt catch fire. One month at longest is the life of a woman's dress; then the old skirt is burned and a brand new one plaited, with no tedious fittings at the dressmaker's nor depressing bills to pay."

SQUIRRELS DAMAGE PHONES.

Kansas Town's Pets Dine Heartily on Insulation.

Because squirrels, pets of the town, had nibbled the insulation off the telephone wires and bitten into the cables 450 telephones in Hutchinson, Kan., were out of commission recently during a storm.

Linemen and electricians worked all day in the storm and succeeded in having all but 125 of the phones in operation by evening. Wherever they had eaten the insulation from wires or eaten into the cables the rain caused trouble.

Rouen Relies on Navigation.

The river Seine, with its branches and canals, connects the city of Rouen with one-fifth of the total area of France and with one-third its population.

Greatly Improved.

Mrs. Mater—Have you seen Mr. Dater's son since he got home from college? Daughter—Yes, ma; saw him last night. Mrs. M.—Has he improved much? Daughter—Awfully. He's got a mustache.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—It cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—It enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and overarched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

JUST GOSSIP
BY THE GOSSIPER.

A bunch of hoodlums driving about Peninsula Drive in an automobile at the hoodlum hour of 1 o'clock the other night amused themselves by throwing and smashing empty beer bottles, the contents of which they had evidently imbibed, against the high stone wall in front of the home of Dr. J. P. Hach. Fortunately the doctor was awake at the time and heard the crash of the smashing bottles. Keeping this in mind the doctor arose at break of day, went to the street in front of his home and found just what he expected to find —the sidewalk and street covered with pieces of glass from the smashed bottles. Dr. Hach spent considerable time in cleaning up as best he could the pieces of glass from the street and walk and by this kindly act probably saved a number of automobile and bicycle tires from being badly cut and spoiled. Such a hoodlum act should bring arrest for the hoodlums who did it and it is too bad they can't be brought before Mayor Titus. If there is anything this city executive enjoys it is to soak just such hoodlums as this. Dr. Hach made a vain effort to get a look at the automobile in the dark and has since been quietly investigating to see if he can get track of the perpetrators of the dirty deed. If he locates the guilty parties there will be some fur flying.

LA DELL-FOX COMPANY COMES HERE MONDAY.

The next number of the lyceum course of the season at the New Daytona theater will be the La Dell-Fox company, which will be seen at the theater here Monday evening. Miss Marietta La Dell has a reputation of being a reader who is "different." Her work is unlike that of any other lyceum readers. All her numbers are written especially for her. George Fox and Miss Crawford are more than supports for Miss La Dell. They are artists in their respective lines. Mr. Fox was featured at the age of six as a child-wonder on the piano. His work on the violin places him in the front rank among the greatest violinists in the country. Miss Crawford has a beautiful, rich high soprano voice, flexible and of a delightful quality. She has a remarkable range of three octaves.

PLEASANT RECEPTION AT DAYTONA BEACH.

MRS. E. F. GATES ENTERTAINS AT HER HOME ON HALIFAX AVENUE IN HONOR OF VISITING FRIENDS.

A pleasant reception was held Friday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. F. Gates, on Halifax avenue, Daytona Beach, Mrs. Gates entertaining in honor of her friends, Miss Dorothy Pease of New Britain, Conn., and Mrs. L. M. Murray of Ocala, and these ladies received with the hostess.

Miss Frances Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio, who is spending the season at Daytona Beach, being located with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hunnewell, presided over the punch bowl, and refreshments were also served in the dining room which was tastefully decorated with beautiful pink roses. About 50 ladies participated in this delightful social event.

The Assembly of Notables.

The assembly of the notables at Versailles, Nov. 3, 1788, will ever stand as one of the great landmarks in human progress, not on account of itself, but in consequence of what it led to. Louis XVI., being in great financial straits, had already called together the big men of his realm, but it is with this second meeting of the great ones that history will ever be the most profoundly concerned. The "notables," made up of the nobility and aristocracy of the realm, listened to their own voices and displayed their gold lace and vanity for something over a month and adjourned without doing anything either for the king or the people. Disgusted with the stupidity and indifference of the notables, Louis convoked the states general, which was composed of representatives of the nobility, clergy and third estate, or plain people. Maddened by the contemptuous treatment they received at the hands of nobles, the deputies of the third estate organized themselves into the national assembly, which in turn organized the revolution.—New York American.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Darrow of New York, and Mrs. C. D. Palmer of Boston, Mass., are guests at the Gables. Mr. and Mrs. Darrow are friends of Capt. Howard Reed, who was here several winters ago with his excursion boat, the Belle Harbor, and were directed here by Capt. Reed, who when here was a guest of the Gables in company with his wife.

Among the numerous arrivals in the city during the present busy season, we have inadvertently neglected to mention the presence in our midst, so to speak, of a distinguished son of Italy. That is, he can be distinguished by his habit of carrying a musical device with him, and because he is accompanied by a simian cousin, adorned with a red cap, and armed with a tin cup.

[illegible] for these maneuver camps, however, and the preparing the militia, has given time for much of preparation in advance of such occasion.

"Understanding all this the important purpose which the present situation serves is quite apparent. The army is being given a practical test in the lessons which have been taught during the last six or eight years, and to make this test effective the same conditions are naturally being observed as would obtain did an emergency exist requiring a mobilization of the army for active duty in carrying out some actual aggressive or defensive purpose.

"The unsettled situation in Mexico at the present time lends just that touch of interest and furnishes just that suspicion of hidden possibilities which will stimulate all concerned to best endeavors. If the present mobilization of troops, because of these contemporaneous events, fixes the public attention upon the great progress toward a higher efficiency which has been made by the army since the war with Spain, and upon the importance and value of the character of the training which is now being given our military forces, it will have served another purpose fully as important as any that might be suggested by our very general lack of information about the foreign relations of the nation."

The Roman Forum.

The Forum was originally a market place and only by degrees became the center of Roman civic and political life. About B. C. 470 it became the place of assembly of the people in their tribes and was gradually adorned with temples and other great public buildings. The Roman Forum—the Acropolis at Athens alone excepted—is perhaps the most thrillingly interesting spot on earth to such as know and appreciate the teachings of history. From the Forum came the august laws which governed the then known world for more than a thousand years.

Raising Chickens.

The suburban man was all sympathy.

"What's the trouble, my dear?" he asked as he came home and found his wife in tears.

"Trouble enough," sobbed his young wife. "You know that five dollar incubator the man sold me? Well, it exploded today and blew all the chickens through the roof."

"Oh, well, cheer up, Martha. The man said it would raise chickens, and you see it did."—Chicago News.

Where Gannets Swarm.

One of the most remarkable sights in the world is Bird island, in South Africa, for the reason that during some months of the year it is literally covered with gannets. Not a foot of ground is to be seen anywhere. Day after day thousands of gannets strut around, and they are so close to each other that the whole island seems actually alive. Those who have seen this sight say that it is one which can never be forgotten.

SUMMER: THE TUTHILL POINT, EAST MORICHES L. I., N. Y.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communication by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all those records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1200. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

Fine Job Printing, Promptly executed at Gazette News Office.

Provided For In Advance.

A playwright in an interview in New York said that without attention to the minutest details theatrical success could rarely be attained.

"And yet," he added, smiling, "even this grand virtue of attention to details may be carried to excess. Thus a certain playwright said at rehearsal to his leading man:

"'Now, remember, John, after you speak this line, "Helen, I will save you though I perish," pause and wait for the applause.'

"But the leading man sneered and answered cynically:

"'How do you know there'll be any applause?'

"'That is my business, not yours, John,' the playwright answered with calm confidence."—Washington Star.

What the World Lost.

"It was the worst calamity that ever happened to me," sighed the pale, intellectual high browed young woman. "I had written a modern society novel, complete to the last chapter, and a careless servant girl gathered the sheets of the manuscript from the floor, where the wind had blown them, and used them to start a fire in the grate."

"What a burning shame that was!" commented Miss [illegible].—Chicago Tribune.

Manners Versus Mannerism.

There's a vast difference between manners and mannerism. For instance, manners takes its soup softly and quietly, while mannerism gurgles it. Manners says, "Pass the butter, please," while mannerism bites a chunk out of a piece of bread and mutters, "Slip me the grease, will you?"—Detroit Free Press.

The Contest.

"All men," said the earnest citizen, "are born equal."

"They are that," replied Mr. Rafferty. "But they don't stay equal after they're big enough to get together in the schoolyard."—Washington Star.

Commendable Caution.

"My son, remember this—marrying on a salary has been the salvation of many a young man."

"I know, dad. But suppose my wife should lose her salary?"—Cleveland Leader.

Dear at the Price.

McClubber—The footpad said "Money or your life!" so I gave him $2. Mrs. McClubber—Huh! You're always getting stuck, Billy!—Puck.

Bravery has no place where it can avail nothing.—Johnson.

A Fearful Punishment.

Compulsory sleeplessness, a Chinese punishment for murder, is fatal in nine or ten days.

Food Prices Will Never Return to Their Old Standard.

There Are Not Enough Producers.

By WILLET M. HAYS, Acting Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

THERE IS LITTLE CHANCE OF PRICES EVER RETURNING TO THE OLD LOW STANDARD.

Only ONE-THIRD of the total population of the country is now engaged in producing food for the remaining two-thirds. This will be shown by statistics to be issued by the census bureau. Only two generations ago two thirds of the population was engaged in production. To this remarkable reversal is THE HIGH COST OF LIVING MAINLY DUE.

One of the other big factors has been the great increase in gold and exchange paper, such as checks. WITH MONEY PLENTIFUL PRICES INCREASE. With production in lines other than farming products rapidly increasing it is but natural that many men should turn into those industries.

No matter how much the demand for other products may increase, men can eat only a certain amount of food. Therefore the only thing that can affect the sale of food is the INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF CONSUMERS. Progress along other lines will not affect food.

THE ONLY THING THAT WOULD MAKE LOW PRICES CERTAIN FOR A LONG TIME WOULD BE A CONTINUATION OF BANNER CROPS LIKE THOSE OF 1912.

Use Short Words.

Literary aspirants should religiously eschew polysyllabic orthography. The philosophical and philological substructure of this principle is ineluctable. Excessively attenuated verbal symbols inevitably induce unnecessary complexity and consequently exaggerate the obfuscation of the mentality of the peruser. Conversely, expressions which are reduced to the furthermost minimum of simplification and compactness, besides contributing realistic verisimilitude, constitute a much less onerous handicap to the reader's perspicacity.

Observe, for instance, the unmistakable and inescapable expressiveness of onomatopoetic, interjectional, monosyllabic utterances, especially when motivated under strenuous emotional circumstances. How much more appealing is their emphatical pulchritude than the preposterous and pretentious pomposity of elongated verbiage.—Life.

A Snub For Tennyson.

If any one asked Holman Hunt about persons he would tell delightful frank anecdotes concerning, maybe, the great men he knew and loved and measured exactly. He liked a spice of fun in everything, too, and his face beamed as he described a walk with Tennyson he had lately taken. They heard footsteps behind, and the great man frowned. "How they dog us, Hunt! How shall we escape them?"

"Just sit on the stile till they pass," said the matter of fact artist. They did so, and two lads in knickerbockers marched by swinging their sticks and not even turning their heads. Tennyson was chapfallen.

"Do you know, Hunt," he said, "I do not think they know who I am."

"Very likely, my dear Tennyson, and they would not even know if you told them!"—"Recollections of Holman Hunt" in London Academy.

ORMOND-ON-THE-HALIFAX

ORMOND is 5 miles north of Daytona, and on the west of the Halifax. The location [illegible] permits [illegible] elevation is [illegible] and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach.

Many fine homes are maintained on either side of the river, most of them surrounded by subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

Ormond has many attractions—yachting, automobiling, good fishing, safe boating, and many pleasant drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, the Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax, and the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the grand Atlantic.

Besides the broad, smooth beach there are many drives for carriages and automobiles around Ormond—drives to and through groves of golden oranges; drives through tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Coquina mill built by slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of [illegible], whose places are complete with the brightest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of the most interesting of these plantations is at the headwaters of the Halifax and known as Moundgrove. It is one of the finest orange groves on the East Coast of Florida and is amid very pretty surroundings. Moundgrove is on the Daytona—Saint Augustine road.

DAYTONA BEACH FLORIDA

PINEHURST
Peninsula Drive
Daytona Beach
Modern Conveniences, Rates Reasonable.
Mrs. W. H. Freeman Proprietor

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accomodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenominal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

Provided For In Advance.

A playwright in an interview in New York said that without attention to the minutest details theatrical success could rarely be attained.

"And yet," he added, smiling, "even this grand virtue of attention to details may be carried to excess. Thus a certain playwright said at rehearsal to his leading man:

"'Now, remember, John, after you speak this line, "Helen, I will save you though I perish," pause and wait for the applause.'

"But the leading man sneered and answered cynically:

"'How do you know there'll be any applause?'

What the World Lost.

"It was the worst calamity that ever happened to me," sighed the pale, intellectual high browed young woman. "I had written a modern society novel, complete to the last chapter, and a careless servant girl gathered the sheets of the manuscript from the floor, where the wind had blown them, and used them to start a fire in the grate."

"What a burning shame that was!" commented Miss Tartun.—Chicago Tribune.

Manners Versus Mannerism.

There's a vast difference between manners and mannerism. For instance, manners takes its soup softly and quietly, while mannerism gargles it. Manners says, "Parss the buttah, please," while mannerism bites a chunk out of a piece of bread and stutters, "Slip me the grease, will you?"—Detroit Free Press.

The Contest.

"All men," said the earnest citizen, "are born equal."

Commendable Caution.

"My son, remember this—marrying on a salary has been the salvation of many a young man."

"I know, dad. But suppose my wife should lose her salary?"—Cleveland Leader.

Dear at the Price.

McClubber—The footpad said "Money or your life!" so I gave him $2. Mrs. McClubber—Huh! You're always getting stuck, Billy!—Puck.

Bravery has no place where it can avail nothing.—Johnson.

A Fearful Punishment.

Compulsory sleeplessness, a Chinese punishment for murder, is fatal in nine or ten days.

Food Prices Will Never Return to Their Old Standard.

There Are Not Enough Producers.

By WILLET M. HAYS, Acting Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

THERE IS LITTLE CHANCE OF PRICES EVER RETURNING TO THE OLD LOW STANDARD.

Only ONE-THIRD of the total population of the country is now engaged in producing food for the remaining two-thirds. This will be shown by statistics to be issued by the census bureau. Only two generations ago two-thirds of the population was engaged in production. To this remarkable reversal is THE HIGH COST OF LIVING MAINLY DUE.

One of the other big factors has been the great increase in gold and exchange paper, such as checks. WITH MONEY PLENTIFUL PRICES INCREASE. With production in lines other than farming products rapidly increasing it is but natural that many men should turn into those industries.

No matter how much the demand for other products may increase, men can eat only a certain amount of food. Therefore the only thing that can affect the sale of food is the INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF CONSUMERS. Progress along other lines will not affect food.

Use Short Words.

Literary aspirants should religiously eschew polysyllabic orthography. The philosophical and philological substructure of this principle is ineluctable. Excessively attenuated verbal symbols inevitably induce unnecessary complexity and consequently exaggerate the obfuscation of the mentality of the peruser. Conversely, expressions which are reduced to the furthermost minimum of simplification and compactness, besides contributing realistic verisimilitude, constitute a much less onerous handicap to the reader's perspicacity.

DEAD FLIES PRECIOUS OINTMENT.

The Gospel Points Out More Deceptive Additions to the Word of God Contained in Our Common Version Bible, but Shows It to Be False Because Not Found in the Oldest Greek MSS.—One of These "Flies" Has Spoiled Accepted Theology—Dead Flies Cause the Apothecary's Ointment to Stink.—Ecclesiastes 10:1.

Not long ago I pointed out that the last twelve verses of St. Mark's Gospel, in our Common Version, are spurious—as recognized by all scholars, because those verses are not to be found in any of the oldest Greek MSS., and were evidently added to the Word of God in the Seventh Century or later. Moreover, we gave proofs of the untruthfulness of this addition. Is it true that whoever believes the Gospel of Christ may handle serpents with impunity and may drink deadly poison without harm? Surely not. It is nothing short of a sin for those who know better to acknowledge these verses and to use them to bolster up theories of Divine Healing. It is as much a crime to add to the Word of God as to take away from it.

Today I invite attention to some other "dead flies," some other additions to God's Word, which have had much to do with twisting the theology once delivered to the saints. Take, for instance, the closing words of the Lord's Prayer:—

"Thine is the Kingdom and Power and Glory."

These words, if uttered by our Lord, should be found in the old Greek MSS. But they are not found therein. They are, therefore, to be rejected as additions made by people centuries after Matthew's Gospel was written. These words were introduced when the faith of the Church respecting the Kingdom of Messiah was changed or changing from what it was originally.

All through the New Testament the second coming of Christ in power and glory to establish His Kingdom and to glorify the Church, His Bride, is set for the end of this Gospel Age. But as the time grew long a change of sentiment came into the Church. It became popular and rich. Its bishops were respected. Finally the theory prevailed that God did not intend to delay the establishment of the Kingdom until the second coming of Christ, but did intend to establish it in the hands of the Church during this Age and to use the Church for the conquering of the world and the fulfilling of all the promises of the past.

In line with this the most prominent bishop of the time was recognized as Divinely appointed to represent Christ in the world and to reign over the nations in his stead and to bring about the Messianic reign, etc. This was the Bishop of Rome, who subsequently was styled the Pope and who claimed and was accorded the honorable title, "Vice-gerent of the Son of God." It is said that the equivalent of this title is worn to this day by the Pope on his tiara, or three-crowned hat—Vicarius Dei Filii.

"Thy Kingdom Come on Earth."

The Lord's prayer was already in the Scriptures, and was known to many. It could not be eliminated. But some anxious person, fully believing that God's Kingdom had come, felt justified in amending the prayer to correspond to what he supposed were the facts. Hence the prayer which begins, "Thy Kingdom come," is made to end by saying, "Thy Kingdom has come in its glory and power."

How glad we are to see the Truth on this subject: that the Kingdom of God's dear Son has not yet been set up in any sense of the word—that it is still future. It cannot be set up until this Gospel Age ends and the "elect" saintly few of every nation, Jew and Gentile, shall be changed from earthly to heavenly nature by the First Resurrection, which will qualify them to be kings and priests unto God and unto Christ and to reign with Him a thousand years (Revelation xx, 6).

It is well that all Bible students should mark this "fly" and extract it from the Precious Ointment and notice how much sweeter and fresher the Lord's prayer is to them forever.

"Oh, What a Whopper!"

Who cannot sympathize with the great infidel, Thomas Paine, who when reading the last verse of St. John's Gospel, exclaimed, "Oh, what a whopper!" It reads, "And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written" (John xxi, 25).

Surely anyone of reasoning mind should see the absurdity of such a statement. Surely all Christian ministers should have informed the Lord's sheep under their care respecting what is and what is not the Word of God, the Bible, as it was recognized by the Apostolic Church and written down in the original Greek MSS. Why any Christian minister should assail me because I endeavor to do for the people what he has neglected to do I cannot understand. I must leave it to the Lord to judge between us.

I renounce Higher Criticism and accept the Word of God in full. I reject nothing because of my own or other men's errors, but merely go by the facts. If the oldest Greek MSS. do not contain certain passages of Scripture, how could they get into later MSS. except as spurious additions?

CORDITE.

Made of Two Powerful Explosives Kneaded Into Paste.

Cordite is the outcome of the strange paradox that if you mix together two powerful explosives the result is a smokeless slow burning powder. Nitroglycerin and gun cotton mixed together with a little petroleum jelly make cordite. It is curious to see the two deadly explosives being kneaded together into a paste by women with the same unconcern as dough is kneaded for bread. Indeed, machines similar to those used in bakeries take up the work and knead the buff colored cordite paste for seven hours. Then it is forced through molds and issues in long cords—hence the name cordite—the thickness of which is varied according to the weapon in which it is to be used.

For big guns cordite is half an inch thick and cut into lengths of thirty-seven inches. Rather more than a thousand of these cordite sticks packed in two bundles make up the cartridge for a twelve inch gun. For the rifle cordite is pressed into a very thin string, like the finest macaroni, and sixty of these strands one inch and a half long make the neat little bundle which lies inside the cartridge case. For some European armies cordite is made in flat thin strips like whalebone. Kept away from fire, cordite can be handled with impunity.—London Graphic.

Mountains of Moab.

Most travelers who visit the Holy Land content themselves with a visit to that restricted part west of Jordan. The mountainous regions of Moab as seen by them from Jerusalem are lost in a purple haze that constantly hangs over them, and the great stretches beyond are covered in mystery. This is true partly because of the fewer historical incidents connected with the eastern regions, but mainly on account of the great abyss of the Jordan valley that has always acted as a barrier. Few who descend into the valley 1,300 feet below sea level undertake to climb the hills beyond, which rise to a height of 3,000 feet. Though its glory is far outshone by that of western Palestine, still, both in the old and the new dispensations, it has a history of its own and from an economic standpoint will always enter very largely into the life of Palestine.—Christian Herald.

Semi-submersibles, Torpedo Proof, the Coming Battleships.

Westcott Abell, professor of naval architecture at the University of Liverpool, in a lecture predicted the abandonment of heavy plating above the water line of warships and the eventual disappearance of the Dreadnought type.

The future battleship, he said, would be an oil driven, semi-submersible protected by a thick horizontal deck and underwater armor strong enough to resist torpedoes. It would be armed with big guns on high towers, would have submerged torpedo tubes and be difficult to hit or sink.

DREADOUGHTS ARE DOOMED.

Semi-submersibles, Torpedo Proof, the Coming Battleships.

Westcott Abell, professor of naval architecture at the University of Liverpool, in a lecture predicted the abandonment of heavy plating above the water line of warships and the eventual disappearance of the Dreadnought type.

The future battleship, he said, would be an oil driven, semi-submersible protected by a thick horizontal deck and underwater armor strong enough to resist torpedoes. It would be armed with big guns on high towers, would have submerged torpedo tubes and be difficult to hit or sink.

Anger begins in folly and ends in repentance.—Pythagoras.

PRIMITIVE PHYSIC.

John Wesley as a Physician and Some of His Remedies.

It is not generally known that John Wesley in one of his brief intervals of leisure published a sort of medical vade mecum called not inappropriately "Primitive Physic." It was first published in 1747, and it ran into at least twenty-four editions. The author was greatly surprised there was so swift and large a demand for it. In the later editions he was able to add the word "Tried" to certain remedies the virtues of which he had meanwhile found opportunities of testing. After five years' careful trial and notwithstanding the objections of the learned he recommends for the ague "to go into the cold bath just before the cold fit," but omits to say how to time the coming of the fit. To prevent apoplexy use the cold bath and drink only water. If this proves useless and a fit should declare itself you have only to "put a handful of salt with a pint of cold water and if possible pour it down the throat of the patient." To cure asthma "take a pint of cold water every morning, washing the head therein immediately after." Wesley gives four ways of curing old age: "take tar water morning and evening" or "a decoction of nettles" or "be electrified daily" or "chew cinnamon daily and swallow your saliva." The two great panaceas in the Wesleyan doctrine are the use of cold water and the use of electricity, and at the end of the book are columns of every sort of disease which may be overcome by these simple expedients.—St. James' Gazette.

A Pleasant Farewell.

A local minister had had a serious time in fighting the saloon element in his own town and had not been backed up in his efforts by the members of his own church. MADAME LABADIE TO APPEAR AT NEW DAYTONA THEATER.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR APPEARANCE OF DRAMATIC ARTIST BEFORE AN AUDIENCE IN THIS CITY.

An event of more than usual interest in Daytona will be the appearance of Madame Harriet Labadie, Friday, March 24, at the new Daytona theater, under the auspices of the Palmetto Club. Madame Labadie holds the reputation of having developed a feature of work that represents a new step in the dramatic movement of the day, and her press notices show a unanimity of opinion on the part of the critics throughout America as to the exquisite quality of her work, and declare that she is to dramatic art what Melba and Schumann-Heink are to music.

At present Madame Labadie is spending a few weeks of leisure in Florida before returning to New York after an absence of two years in which time she has made an extensive tour of the western maritime states and the provinces of Canada. Madame Labadie spent last summer in Alaska and the Yukon territory, and gave dramatic interpretations before enthusiastic audiences of the people at [illegible] even as far north as Nome.

On her return the artist enjoyed a brief holiday on her ranch in the delightful Hood River district in Oregon, before beginning her season, on her way east, in which she has fulfilled engagements [illegible].

Her world's tour, which it is expected will occupy five years in all, is personally conducted by Francis Labadie, and will include a visit to South America, Europe, India, South Africa, China and Japan, the Australian commonwealth, New Zealand and the Hawaiian Islands. Madame Labadie is accompanied by a party of ladies who are undertaking this remarkable trip each with an educational object in view.

Of these Miss Vita Lewis of New York, and Miss Ida Wilshire of Australia, have been in Daytona with the artist since her arrival here, and they will be joined by three other members of the party, including E. Burton Whiteside of Philadelphia, Mrs. Anna B. Roberts of New York, and Miss Lillian [illegible], who will spend the week end together at the Hotel Clarendon.
